Columbia College Softball Camps

Columbia College Softball Camps are designed to teach and enhance the fundamental skills of fastpitch softball for girls grades two through eight. Emphasis will be placed on developing correct mechanics and techniques for the various skills necessary in fastpitch softball. Skills covered include throwing, fielding, hitting, bunting, base running, sliding, position play and defensive situations. General skills as well as position specific skills will be developed through instruction, individual and group drills and game play.

Camp will start promptly at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. daily. Campers are expected to adhere to camp policies and procedures and may be dismissed from camp for inappropriate behavior.

Camp Director, Wendy Spratt

Former Columbia College All-American Wendy Spratt is in her fifteenth season as head coach of the Columbia College women's fastpitch softball team in 2009. Spratt enters the season with a career record of 550-244 (.694) after leading her 2004 Cougar squad to a 5th place finish at the NAIA National Tournament.

Spratt assumed full-time duties at Columbia College in June 1994. Since that time, the Cougars have won the American Midwest Conference title five times and advanced to the NAIA National Tournament on five occasions. For her efforts, Spratt has been recognized as conference coach of the year four times and region coach of the year twice.

Spratt earned All-America accolades as a shortstop in 1990. She was an All-District 16 performer four times (1987-90), an All Show-Me Collegiate Conference selection twice (1988, 90), a two-time All-SMCC Academic selection (1988, 90) and NAIA Scholar-Athlete. Spratt was voted by her teammates as Columbia College Team MVP after the 1990 season when she set school records for batting average (.480), most hits in a season (83) and most triples in a season (10).

Spratt was a member of the 1993 United States women's fastpitch softball team. She also competed in the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival.

Past and present members of the Columbia College women's fastpitch softball team will also serve as members of the camp staff.

What To Bring

Players should bring a glove, softball cleats, tennis shoes, bat and helmet. Catchers should also bring catching gear. Players may also want to bring sunblock, a snack and a water bottle; breaks are provided.

Cost

The cost of the camp is $70 per participant. A $10 per child discount is available for enrollment of two or more children from the same immediate family.
