

Camp Staff

Wendy Spratt, Director

Former Columbia College All-American Wendy Spratt is in her 17th season as head coach of the Columbia College women's fastpitch softball team in 2011. Spratt enters the season with a career record of 519-275.

Spratt assumed full-time duties at Columbia College in June 1994. Since that time, the Cougars have won the American Midwest Conference title eight times and advanced to the NAIA National Tournament on nine occasions. For her efforts, Spratt has been recognized as conference coach of the year five times and region coach of the year four times.

Spratt earned All-America accolades as a shortstop in 1990. She was an All-District 16 performer four times (1987-90), an All Show-Me Collegiate Conference selection twice (1988, 90), a two-time All-SMCC Academic selection (1988, 90) and NAIA Scholar-Athlete. Spratt was voted by her teammates as Columbia College Team MVP after the 1990 season when she set school records for batting average (.480), most hits in a season (83) and most triples in a season (10).

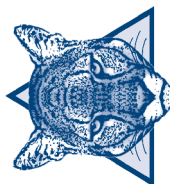

Spratt was a member of the 1993 United States women's fastpitch softball team. She also competed in the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival.

Joe Henderson, Assistant Coach

Joe Henderson is in his first season in 2011 with the Columbia Cougars. Prior to joining the Columbia staff, Henderson spent a season at Lincoln University as an assistant coach and four years as head coach at Rock Bridge High School. Joe specializes in teaching hitting skills.

Tyler Stark, Assistant Coach

Tyler Stark enters his third season with the Cougar softball program in 2011. A men's fastpitch veteran, Stark spent three seasons at Lincoln University before joining the staff at Columbia College. Tyler works with Columbia's pitching staff.

Columbia College Softball Camps are designed to teach and enhance the fundamental skills of fastpitch softball for girls ages 7-13. Emphasis will be placed on developing correct mechanics and techniques for the various skills necessary in fastpitch softball. Skills covered include throwing, fielding, hitting, bunting, base running, sliding, position play and defensive situations. General skills as well as position specific skills will be developed through instruction, individual and group drills and game play.

A $10 discount is available for enrollment of two or more children from the same immediate family. The first child pays the full enrollment and all additional children receive the discount.*

 A $25 discount will apply to those individuals enrolled in both the High School and Exposure camp.*
